This material was copied from records loaned me by Miss Clarice Pittman, 15 Hamilton Street, East Wenatchee, Washington.

Most of the research was apparently done in the Virginia State Library, during 1941 and 1942, (Name of researcher not known) for Mr. D. L. Pittman, Novato, California.

Have made quite an extensive research on your Pittman family, and have been able to locate the following information: Estill County, Kentucky, was formed in 1808 from parts of Clark and Madison Counties. Clark was formed in 1792 from Fayette and Bourbon. Madison was formed 1785 from Lincoln.

Jesse Pittman was in Madison County before the formation of Estill. Upon the formation of Estill, Jesse was cut off into the newly formed county. In 1807 Jesse is listed on the Tax Book of Madison County, having one horse. The Tax Books show the names of all free white males over 21 years and their taxable property. No further information is revealed in them.

There is some indications that these Pittmans were connected with the Pittmans in Green County, Kentucky. I did not look in the Tax Books in Green County for the Pittmans, but do know that there was a Pittmans creek which appears in the early records of that county. No doubt it was named for an early settler of that region. This assumption is based on the fact that John Pittman is listed on the Tax Book of Madison County in 1807 with four tracts of land - 400 acres in Green County, on Green River, 266 acres in Lincoln County on the Kentucky River and Hickmans Creek, 176 acres in Madison County on the Kentucky River, and 322 acres in Madison County on Otter Creek. The tract of land on Green River was entered, patented and surveyed in his own name. He had a son over 16 but under 21 years of age ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~ in his family, he had 24 slaves and 15 horses.

Jesse Pittman appears on the first Tax Book of Estill County, 12 Oct. 1808, having 1 horse. He is not listed with land until 1819 when he had 180 acres on Crooked Creek, which had been entered in the name of O'Hear (from whom Jesse probably bought it). He is listed with this land in 1820, but not afterwards.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of Jan. 12, 1940, addressed to William or Andy Pittman inquiring about the Pittman Generation in Lee County, Kentucky, has been handed to me for answer.

The Pioneer Pittman to come to this country was Micajer Pittman in the early part of 1800, as he had a girl Sally Ann Pittman Johnson who was born April 26, 1834 - 105 yrs. ago. Micajer Pittman was married twice, his last wife's name was Maryette.

To his first wife, whose name is forgotten, were born:

Sally Ann Pittman Johnson	Dennis Pittman Bennett
Jesse Pittman	Margaret Pittman Estes
Susan Pittman Cox

Second wife, step children : Cincy Pittman Longworth, Gilla Ann Pittman.

One branch of the family came through Jesse Pittman who married "Pop" Estes. Children:

William Pittman	Micajer Pittman	Andy Pittman
Robert Pittman	Sally Pittman Johnson	Ida Pittman Dunaway (Dead)
Orville Pittman (Dead)	Jesse Pittman, Jr. (Dead)
Anna Pittman (Dead)	John Pittman

Orville Pittman married Lizzie Johnson to whom were born:

Jesse Pittman	Brock Pittman (Dead	Hubert Pittman
Clifton Pittman (Dead)	Wayne Pittmann

My father, Roscoe Pittman, married my mother, Flora Ponce, in 1924 and I am their only child. My father married a second time to Geneva Slone. I can furnish other information - the Johnson family, Jesse Pittman family, the Cox family and Bennett family.

Micajer Pittman was here along about the time your grandfather depths was in Irvine but doubt they were related. Please answer and give me what information you have. Andy Pittman address is, A. F. Pittman, Franklin, Ohio. William's address is William Pittman Mt. Sterling, Ky.

If you ever decide to come to Beattyville stop and see us. I live with my Grandma about one and one half miles north of Beattyville on State Highway No. 52.

Mr. L. D. Pittman
Novato, Calif.

Dear Mr. Pittman:

Your interesting letter was received about six weeks ago and should have been answered promptly but it came at a time when I was making a strenuous effort to get as much business as possible before the end of 1940, as 1940 would not be much less than that for 1939, but even with all my hard work I had to run over into 1941 and date the business I wrote up to the 20th instant back to Dec., 1940 so it would count on last year. During this period I just let my correspondence pile up and am just now working it out. So I hope you will pardon me for the long delay.

Now as to your letter, it looks very much as tho your branch of the Pittman family and mine all were originally the same family back there in the early days of Ky. My great grandfather, Richard Pittman, was born in Lancaster Co., Va., in 1755, settled in Woodford Co., Ky., in 1790 with his brother Ambrose with their families; they having married sisters, Lydia and Susan Warren, whose father and family came with them to Ky. William Warren's family consisted of 5 daughters and one son, Wm. L. Warren, who was a prominent lawyer and settled in Georgetown, Scott Co., Ky.

Richard and Ambrose Pittman, in 1801, bought in Laurel Co. Ky., 3320 acres South of Rockcastle River, upon which Richard Pittman located the next year. Ambrose Pittman remained in Woodford Co. until 1820, when with his family he followed his brother, Richard, and opened a farm on his land. Richard and his wife, Lydia, were the parents of 14 children, all of whom grew to maturity, except one son who died in infancy. These two families were prosperous and well-to-do and among the best farmers in the county.

In 1817 my grandfather, Lewis Pittman, was married to Martha Green. He opened a farm adjoining the old homestead, where they lived until his wife died in 1824, leaving two children, Mary Ann, Granville and Green. Grandfather was married again in 1830 to Elizabeth, daughter of Judge Urish Gresham of Rockcastle Co. Ky. She died 15 April 1834 leaving a baby, Martha Jane, who died 30 July 1834.

Grandfather's third marriage, 26 Feb. 1836 to Pamalia Love Warren of Tenn. resulted in the birth of 7 children: Warren, Martha, Stephen Bates (my father), Minerva, Eliza, William, also Louisa who died when a small child. My grandfather and grandmother with their children left Ky. on 18 Oct. 1834 and after a hard trip across the frontier country arrived in what is now Fort Madison, Lee Co., Iowa, on 2 April 1835 and settled near what is now West Point, where my father (then only about 3 years old) grew to manhood. The Pittmans were among the first settlers in southeastern Iowa.

My father lived most of his life, after he was married, near Cantril, Van Buren Co., Iowa, where he died 17 Oct. 1874. My youngest sister still lives at Cantril. I left there in Oct. 1893, when I left to take a government job at Brandon, Man., & have since lived at Washington D. C., Minneapolis, Neb., Santee, Neb., Coeur d'Alene, Ida., Spokane, Wash., Wenatchee, Wash., and here at Claremont, Calif., since Aug. 1922. Have been Special Agent for the New York Life Ins. Co. since October 1921.

Now is a little more information regarding my great grandfather, Lydia Pittman & her family which I quote from extracts from my Uncle Granville's diary. He says: "Very much the happiest part of my boyhood life was spent at Grandma Pittman's. She had a large family which brought a good deal of company to her house. In my first recollection of them there were at home, to-wit: Betsey, Polly, Sally, Lydia, Patsey and Martha, and I remember, the greater part of the time; also a girl, second cousin, 6 years older than myself, Adda Pittman. My recollections of her - grandma - in after life have always been very pleasant - some half dozen negroes, we 3 little kids, and herself - 10 in family. Two or three daughters married and away, but family often visitors. Then there was old Uncle Reuben and his family close by that we saw much of, the other relatives and friends, Methodist preachers, etc. Amusement was horseback riding, quiltings, candy-pull, but not to such an extent as to interfer with their domestic duties, for the women were all great workers".

...y three uncles, Linsey, Granville and Green, lived at their grandmother's for a few years after their own mother died. It was during that period that he speaks of above. I think I have written enough for this time, but will be gold to hear from you again, with more information about your side of the family. Also if you come this way anytime come and see us.

Sincerely,

s/ Clyde L Fittman

P. S. Will you please give me the street address of your cousin, Lewis Fittman at Hamtchie. I don't seem to have it.

Americans of Gentle Birth & their Ancestors, Vol 1 - 1903. Mrs. H. B. Pittman, Editor, Pub. St. Louis Mo. Pages 56-59. The Pittmans said to have lived in Monmouthshire on Welsh Border. In the 17th century when Charles I was beheaded three pittman brothers joined the Cavalier emigration to America and landed at James City, Virginia. One brother went to northern colony (N. J. or Penna.) one in Virginia, and one went to the far south (N. C., etc). Of the Virginia branch, Thomas Pittman lived in Virginia and prior to 1750 married Hannah Fielding. They had children: (1) Ambrose, (2) Williamson, (3) Samuel, (4) Richard and others.

Richard Pittman, son of Thomas Pittman of Wicomico Parish, Lancaster Co. Va. & wife, Hannah, daughter of Ambrose Fielding, son of Edward Fielding & wife Winnifred Conway. Richard Pittman and his older brother, Ambrose Pittman, married sisters named Warren and settled in Woodford Co. Ky. in 1790. Lewis Pittman the 3rd son of Richard was born 1794, moved to Knox Co., now Laurel Co. ky. in 1803. His brother, Ambrose remained in Woodford Co. until 1820 where they entertained their cousins Williamson and Asa Pittman, young men at that time, who came from Virginia to Kentucky with their cousin, Stephen Watkins.

Thomas Pittman of the same family, with his wife and 4 children moved from Va. to Wood-ford Co. Ky. early in 1806. One of their daughters moved to Bloomfield, Ill., where her decendents still live.

Richard Pittman Granville Pittman, son of Lewis, moved to Keokuk, Iowa where he died in 1903 leaving a family of sons and daughters. Family tradition of origin Monmouthsh.

Asa Pittman and wife Nancy Trabue had children: (1) Edward F., mar. Anne Harrison, dau. of Dr Burr Harrison and wife Katherine Robinson and had children: (a) Katherine J. . Cleiman, (b) Edward mar. Mae Wright, (c) George mar. Hattie Pendell, (d) Anne Belle, (e) Ida Mae mar. William Taylor, (f) James, - all of Dallas Texas

Since I sold my genealogical library to the Mormon Stake of Redondo Beach, Calif. to start their own library, I do not have books to refer to for North Carolina and Kentucky. Otherwise I might be able to help you further. But at least you can find many county seats to look up in the census, land, probatecourt, etc., records.

Your Hamilton line begins about 1829 in New York when my grandfather came over at age of 14 yr. to stay with an aunt, whom I never learned her name. His father was Andrew Hamilton of Cork, Ireland.

The only genealogy books left me are my Quaker records. If your Harris, Foster or Bradley lines have Quaker ancestry I can help you.

Sincerely yours,
c/ Arthur Hamilton

P. S. I retired in 1955, will be 71 next Feb 21st.

These records from originals in Washington, Miss A. Elmer Ladd, Researcher

(Information furnished to researcher)

Jesse Fittman and wife Charlotta lived near Irvin, Estill County, Kentucky. Jesse Fittman died in 1826. Charlotta Fittman died in 1828

1820 census gives this couple 5 children. One of the five children was Jeptha Fittman who was the grandfather of B. B. Fittman. Jeptha was born in 1798, moved from Kentucky to Missouri about 1835

From old family Bible
William Fittman died 11 Feb. 1865 (brother of Jeptha)
John Fittman died 6 Dec. 1839 (brother of Jeptha)
Melila Fittman died 18 Dec. 1865 (John's wife)

Jesse Fittman was born about 1776

Other Fittmans who lived in Kentucky were Micager & Maryetta, who had one son, Abram Jesse Fittman who married Pop Estes. This couple had 7 sons; William, Robert, Charlie, Micager, Jesse, John and Andy.

Fittman who married Hannah Fielding of Lancaster Co. Va. , had two sons who settled in Milford Co. Ky. about 1790 - Richard Fittman who married Lydia Warren and Ambrose Fittman who married Susan Warren

In various indices examined the name seems to be spelled with both one or two t's and where given names and locations were the same both Fittman and Fitman were noted. As the location of Virginia, as to county or city, was not known the earliest census was examined - 1782 - 1785. This gives the county and number in family but not the names of children or wife, if married. This census is marked "Heads of Families" filed State Archives possibility of his father being named Jesse caused a search as to that particular name.

In Va. - a number appear with this spelling but as no names were shown with the given names as already shown the name of Fittman was followed.

REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS - Index of manuscripts in the State Archives which show service in the way of the American Revolution. Much of these records are pay rolls or muster rolls which do not give the family history but if the bounty warrants or rejected claims are mentioned then frequently some family history is given

A number of the name Pittman or Pittmon are shown in the index but a rejected claim was found into. This was on the name of Fortunatus Pittman who lived in Northumberland Co. Others are mentioned as Fortunatus PITTMAN Anderson, Walter Anderson, Elizabeth Anderson, Zachariah Pittman, Jesse Pittman, all from Northumberland Co. and the petition for the claim was made in 1843. Fortunatus was a lieutenant in the Rev. Army. Apparently these were grandchildren. Of course this Jesse could not be the desired Jesse of Ky. as he died in 1826, but the use of the name Jesse gives the idea of relationship. Also Lancaster Co. was formed from Northumberland Co. and as some who moved to Ky. of the name Pittman came from Lancaster Co. it appears that this section has the strongest lead for the search of the desired line of the name Pittman.

Peter Pittman served in the Revolution at the "Falls of the Ohio" and received a bounty land. His residence is not given.

Peter Pittman served as a private in the Revolution from Frederick Co. and gave his age as 74 years in 1831. A George Pittman was a sergent in the Revolution from Lancaster Co.

When the parentage of Jesse Pittman of Ky. has been established then some one of these may prove to be an ancestor.

Conclusions and suggestions:- From the report it may seem that the Pittman (Pittman) family may be found in a number of counties. Many references have been read but little copied - only enough to show what did exist and on any one of the references more information may be put down if it is shown that the desired line is connected with the same. As much direct information as possible was noted on the western part of the state as so many from that part of the state did move to Ky. and Tenn. as well as Ohio. However the direct line may be more likely found in the Lancaster and Northumberland counties as we do know some of one line from these counties did go to Ky. and the names suggest other names from those to just mentioned counties. The desired Jesse was born approximately 1775. He must have moved to Ky. when he was approximately 21 years old. His son was born in 1798. The tax books of Lancaster and Northumberland counties should be examined from 1795 to 1800 to see if he is mentioned or if a Pittman is mentioned whose estate was settled about the time of Jesse's going to Ky. From these tax books may be gained other leads which will finally show the line. This should be the next step and once finding the parents of said Jesse then even earlier ancestors may be found.

Virginia: - In the search of Va. records for the ancestors of Jesse Pittman counties were first known which were known to have the Pittman name as residents of same. In the early report the Genealogical Indices were mainly followed and as the family moved to Ky mainly the records of southwestern and western Va. were studied as so many from that section did move on to Ky. and Tenn. as well as Ohio. As living descendants state that the early arrivals of that section of the name did not come into the section until 1740 when the direct from Europe it seems that the counties of eastern Va. would give more on the direct line.

Those of the name with both spellings were shown to have been in Isle of Wight, Lancaster, Southampton Accomack - very early for this county - and Surry counties with a possible resident in Nothumberland. Isle of Wight, Westmoreland, Northumberland, Lancaster and Accomack were all early counties with records going back into the 1600's and from these have been formed many other counties of Va.

ISLE OF WIGHT RECORDS - Abstracts of these county records have been filed, in part, in Richmond and these have been used as also other records before trips to the counties.

Richmond Records - For this county there are on file in Richmond Tax Books, Petitions, Marriages (some), and a number of deeds, Wills and Orders which are photostats of the original books. These books are not arranged in order either as to separate wills & deeds or as to number though the outside of each book is dated. Some are indexed & some have to be read. This county was formed from Northumberland in 1651.

Tax books - beginning 1782 - land books - No Pitman is taxed for land until 1787

Judithan Pitman taxed for 95 acres
Thos. " " " 200 "
Richd " " " 300 "
Jesse Pitman " " 450 " (Jesse is the desired name. It would appear that he was born about 1768 1769. tho even those under 18 did own property in this early time)

1788
Same names as above with same acreage

1789
Thomas Pitman's estate taxed for 200 acres
Richard " " " 300 "
Jesse " " " 450 " (Judithan does not appear but in the alterations & transfers he is shown to have transferred 95 acres to Joseph Davenport).

1790
William Pitman taxed for 100 acres
Benjamin " " " 100 "
Jesse Pitman " " 450 " (Thos. Pitman's estate is shown to have transferred 100 acres each to Wm. Pitman & Benjamin Pitman - relationship not shown but probably sons as equal divisions of land.) Richard Pitman is not taxed this year but is shown to have transferred his 300 acres to Johnston Rivoar.

1791
William Pitman taxed for 100 acres
Benjamin " " " 100 "
Jesse Pitman is not taxed for this year and is shown to have transferres 450 acres to Thomas Taylor

Through the years to 1797 only William Pitman and Benjamin Pitman appear. It would appear that Jesse Pitman had made his move to Ky. about this time - 1791. As Jesse's son was born 1793 (in Ky.), Jeptha by name, it is possible that he married in Ky. or it may be possible that he married against the family wishes as suggested in your letter of June 26th, and that may have accounted for his move to Ky. Anyway he definitely belongs to this Lancaster family and these, from the repetition of given names, must also be connected with the Isle of Wight family.

William and Benjamin Pitman appear as formerly with 100 acres
Thomas Pitman taxed for 184 acres.

1799

as above and we find that Thos. Pitman had 1/3 part of 100 acres transferred to him from John Lowry and wife.

1800 & 1801

As above except that Benj. Estate is taxed for his 100 acres - No record is shown for the 1/3 part of him the 170 acres on Thos.'s account.

1802

Thos. Pitman taxed for 184 acres
William Pitman's estate taxed for 100 acres
Benjn " " " " 100 "

1803

Thomas Pitman, Jr., taxed for 38 acres
Thos Pitman taxed for 146 acres. (he evidently deeded his son the 38 acres from his tho there is a difference of 2 acres which may be accounted for by a re-survey)
William Pitman's estate taxed for 100 acres
Benj. " " " " 100 "

Tax books examined to 1804. As Jesse had been found it was thought best to discontinue this part of the work on later members of the family to put more time on trying to locate Jesse's parents.

[illegible] IN HIS INDEX TO VA. WILLS gives the following on Pitman in Lancaster Co.
John Pitman made a will in 1702
Elizabeth Pitman made her will in 1710
William Pitman had inventory taken in 1719 - - no will shown
Benjamin Pitman made a will in 1762
Benjamin Pitman had an inventory in 1785. (Possibly the same man as if he had minor children a full accounting was not made until the youngest "came of age".)
Robert Pitman had an inventory in 1787. (No will shown and as Jesse is taxed this year for 450 acres of land it is possible that he inherited same from Robert)
William Pitman had an inventory in 1790 - - No will shown Benjamin Pitman " 2 " " 1792.

Inventory of above will recorded 17 Dec. 1762. From this it would seem that the Benj. whose inventory was recorded in 1785 was a different man. Frequently in this index if a will was made the inventory to that estate was not given tho if no will was made an inventory was always noted.

PIONEERS & PIONEERS

Mary Pitman came to Va. as a headright in the company of Wm. Rickrex Pearce who settled in Westmoreland Co. 22 March 1665. As no other Pitman name appeared in this book, which covers the first five xxxxx of the books in the land office we decided to search the general index on the land office from 1623 to 1774 and found the following:

1710 to 1719	- Thomas Pitman, Jr.,	Book	10,	page	230	- 200	acres
1724 to 1726	- " "	"	12	"	270	- 250	"
" " "	" "	"	"	"	436	- 400	"
1733 " 1739	" "	"	18	"	411	- 93	"
1741 to 1743	" "	"	20	"	158	- 375	"
" " "	Benjamin "	"	20	"	485	- 590	"
1752 - 1756	Thos. "	"	32	"	626	- 159	"
1756 to 1762	" "	"	34	"	633	- 900	"

The above is simply an index account of the years above stated and gives the name, the year and the acreage. The full grants sometimes give family information but always gives the county and the consideration of the purchase, whether for colonization or for cash. Of course these may be searched but before I realized it I had already gone over the allotted time and then had to assemble and pay typing.

Next steps - (1) Search the above grants. (2) Search personal tax books for Lancaster Co. to see if Jesse is mentioned as "the son of Robert". (3) Continue search in Lancaster record books - or if a complete search of this county is desired then a trip to the county court house might be advisable tho much more may yet be gained from the books on file at Richmond. The slowness of this search is the poor arrangement as to date and subject matter, Wills, deeds, and Orders being mixed in many of the books. (4) Return to the Genealogical Indices to search especially on Robert. (5) Search Northumberland marriages - on file in Richmond - to see if the marriage of Jesse is given - marriage usually in Co. residence of woman. If not then search Ky. marriages.

In the first report we showed the searching with the following references as shown in the Genealogical Indices: (No Jesse appeared in any index on file in our Genealogical Division. Family History searched to see if Jesse might be mentioned in the text of the references even tho his name might not be listed in the index. While the indices are of great help in giving leads it is known that they are not complete)

Gen gives these references which were searched as seeming most promiseing:

LANCASTER COUNTY - (This county considered because of Fielding connection) Land Tax Book Jesse placed - owned 450 acres of land in 1787. No record as to who transferred this land to Jesse. Jesse conveys this land to Thomas Taylor and disappears from the lists 1791. Robert Pitman has inventory of his property in 1787. As he has more acres than 450, from these books we can not be certain that Jesse received same from Robert but as the dates of taxation seem to agree we have a supposition that Jesse is the son of Robert.

Some of the early Record Books have been photostated - Lancaster - and placed in the state archives. These examined to see if a connection may be made between Jesse and Robert or to some Pitman with Jesse which would give information desired. All Pitman names noted as any one might give the desired information. Unfortunately these books are not all indexed and are not arranged in regular order as to dates so they have to be examined and marked as to date to avoid double searching. It is hard to get these books. Both Call numbers and dates must be given as well as the kind of instruments in same . Note also how the dates lap over on some, especially in the last two (page 10) which were examined more closely than the others because the dates of the tax books where both Jesse and Robert were mentioned. Robert as to inventory and Jesse as to land acreage beginning as Robert's ending ends. Earlier ones examined to see if special acreage mentioned any special 450 acres which might have come down the line and finally reached Jesse. Jesse must have been born between 1765 and 1769

From the above we see that no family history is shown as no Pitman was transported on ex change of Thomas and Benjamin Pitman. We do see that Thomas Pitman acquired many acres in of land in Va.

Returning to Lancaster Records, personal taxes are tried, as often a man was taxed earlier for personal taxes than for land taxes, as he might be taxed for personal belongings and for tithes (male members of his family) before owning land. Frequently too in personal taxes a man is mentioned as "son of" and thus establish parentage.

PERSONAL TAXES OF LANCASTER CO. No taxes previous to 1782.

Others mentioned as above and Jesse added - 2 negro slaves, 5 young negroes, one horse, 3 cattle. From this forst appearance of Jesse on the personal tax roll it would seem that he had either just come into his property or that he had moved to Lancaster from some other county. Note that his land tax also commenced in this year, and that this is the year in which Robert's inventory was taken showing he had lived in Lancaster before this time and yet his name does not appear on any of the tax records. For some reason he may have been relieved of taxes or it may have been a case of carelessness of the clerk. We have traced many taxable persons through order books where they have not been listed as taxpayers. We count on the tax books as proof positive of a man having lived in the county.

1788

[illegible]than, (marked "over 21 years"), Thomas Tho[illegible] , Thomas, Jr., Benjamin, Richard, [illegible] taxed
[illegible]e is taxed for 2 tithes, himself and James Fitman. The relationship is not given as it does not say "son" we must suppose that it was a younger brother- possibly both being orphans.

1789 through 1792

Same names appear with slight variation as to property & no other relationship shown.

1793

Jesse disappears in this year from the roll. James continues on the roll. Examined through 1804 with no new information to help on the desired line.

RECORD BOOKS - LANCASTER CO.

In the book for 1758 to 1763 we find a Robert shown xx in Benjamin's will as his son. Other wills previously examined give no Robert or give any clue to Jesse. If Robert was a grown man at the time of the death of his father he could have easily been the father of Jesse. Because the general record books did not yield positive information as to the connection between Jesse and others the two main order books were examined as Court Orders do frequently give family connections on estates, &c. It is the belief that Jesse was a son of Robert who in turn was the son of Benjamin. Circumstantial evidence is good on this supposition but the proof is not positive.

The two Order Books which would be nearest the desired dates examined.
